CHORAL GUEST PRESENTER: JEFFERY REDDING

Jeffery Redding is the choral director at West Orange High School in Winter Gardens, Fla. His choirs have performed at division and national ACDA conventions. Among other honors, Mr. Redding's choirs participated in the International Music Festival in Verona, Italy, where they received the award for best choir. In 2005, he conducted the Mixed High School Honors Choir at the ACDA National Convention.

BAND GUEST PRESENTER: DR. JAMES M. BANKHEAD

Recently appointed head of the Utah State University's Department of Music, Dr. Bankhead is an accomplished artist with strengths in academia and administration. He has conducted command performances for The President of the United States and many world leaders. He is a frequent guest conductor and clinician at events throughout the country. He is a retired lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Air Force and previous commander/conductor of the U.S. Air Force Band.
